

Finding Your Great War Ancestors

*Spend a full day with some of the top Great War experts on the planet!
Discover new resources, practical strategies to crack research conundrums, and shocking truths about the “war to end war”.*

SATURDAY, 31 March 2012

North York Memorial Community Hall

5110 Yonge Street, Toronto (North York Centre subway station)

PROGRAM

Plenary lectures by two of the world's leading Great War authorities
Britain's Simon Fowler and Canada's Tim Cook

Three concurrent lecture streams
British Research, Canadian Research and “Case Studies & Curios”
Follow one through the day or mix and match

Thirteen enthusiastic speakers with expertise to share and fascinating stories to tell
Lorri Busch, Tim Cook, Timothy Dubé, Dr. Marianne Fedunski, Simon Fowler, John Gilinsky, Martha Jackson, Brenda Dougall Merriman, Carol Nichols, Linda Reid, Susan Evans Shaw, James F.S. Thomson and Glenn Wright

REGISTRATION FEE:

$55 if postmarked by 22 February ($45 for OGS members*)

$65 after 22 February ($55 for OGS members*)

**Special rate for members of the Ontario Genealogical Society*

For details and to register, visit
www.torontofamilyhistory.org

TORONTO PUBLIC LIBRARY

Co-sponsored by the Toronto Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society and the Canadiana Department of North York Central Library